Dear Triadelphía Church Family,

Have you ever lost something valuable? Something like your car keys or your wallet? How did you find them? Did it take you a long time? Did you ever think of giving up?

What about seeking the Lord? Deuteronomy 4:29 invites us to seek the Lord with everything we have and, basically, to not give up. If we follow these instructions, we will find Him

"... if you seek Him with all your heart and soul."

This implies first turning to God (v. 30). This is probably the first and most crucial step. The next step is just as important, namely to seek Him with all our heart and soul. In other words, we must sincerely seek Him as if our life depended on it. The Bible clearly tells us that we will find Him because He is a merciful God (v.30), who longs for us to always be near Him where we are always safe.
